William E. Fee was a veteran of an Arkansas regiment who lived near Roanoke in Tarrant County when he applied for a Confederate pension. According to his headstone he was born in 1830.

When the 1910 census was taken, Mr. Fee was living as a boarder in the home of William P. Rutledge of Precinct 4, Denton County, Texas. His age was shown as seventy-two, and he gave his birthplace as Mississippi. He had no occupation.

Mr. Fee was admitted to the Confederate Home in Austin in November 5, 1919.

We have found no Texas death certificate which appears to be for this William E. Fee. The records of the State Cemetery in Austin reveal that he died in 1919 and was buried there. He has a small marble stone there which says he was a member of "Co. C, Dawson's Reg., Stanweitty's Brig., Army of Texas."
