

TARRANT COUNTY TXGENWEB

Barbara Knox and Rob Yoder, County Coordinators

Copyright © 2008-2012. All rights reserved.

Civil War Veterans of Northeast Tarrant County

Henry B. Fuller

Compiled by Michael Patterson
Copyright 2008-2012. All rights reserved.

Henry B. Fuller was a Confederate veteran from Tennessee who spent the last part of his life in the area of present-day Euless. He lies buried in Calloway Cemetery.

Henry B. Fuller was born in Tennessee on June 14, 1841. He was a son of Anderson Fuller and Elizabeth Fuller. Henry appears as a child in the family of his father in the 1850 census of Bedford County, Tennessee's District 4. The Fullers were not slave owners in 1850.

Henry B. Fuller served the Confederacy as a private in the 22nd (Consolidated) Tennessee Cavalry. One record states that he was conscripted on August 28, 1864, and apparently was taken prisoner by the Union army on December 28, 1864. He signed an oath of allegiance to the U. S. government at Nashville, Tennessee on January 26, 1865. His parole records indicate he was a resident of Coffee County, Tennessee, had a fair complexion and light hair, gray eyes, and was 5' 11" tall.

Henry married Mariah Emmaline Wall, who was born November 14, 1843. They were married September 24, 1868 in Coffee County, Tennessee. After Mr. Fuller's death, she married Robert Koonce. She died September 7, 1911, and was buried as a Koonce in Calloway Cemetery. They appear in the 1870 census of District 4, Coffee County, Tennessee, along with their oldest daughter, Cynthia.

Fuller and his family appear in the 1880 census of Precinct 3 of Tarrant County. The birthplaces of their children as recorded indicate they came to Texas between the births of two of their children born about 1874 and August 10, 1879.

Henry Fuller died November 29, 1884 and was buried in Calloway Cemetery, along Calloway Cemetery Road south of Euless, Texas. Family tradition says he was killed by a runaway team of mules. He hit his head and broke his neck during the accident.

Henry and Mariah Fuller had five children: Cynthia Elizabeth Fuller (June 17, 1869-July 23, 1943); Eliza Jane Fuller (November 14, 1871-February 8, 1929); Mary Josephine Fuller (born about 1874); William Anderson Fuller (June 24, 1873-July 28, 1932); and Ida Martha Sarah Fuller (August 10, 1879-January 11, 1930).

