John Halpin was a veteran of the Union army living in Bransford in 1890. He served in Co. A, 27th Massachusetts Infantry from August 1, 1861 until October 10, 1865. Halpin's regiment fought in a number of skirmishes and battles, most notably at Cold Harbor and in the Siege of Petersburg, both in Virginia in 1864.

Halpin was lame for the rest of his life from a dislocated heel he suffered while in service. His death does not appear in the Texas Death records, and he has no readable headstone standing in northeast Tarrant County, Texas. No obvious USA civil war pensions.
